

MY SURRENDER

WORDS AND MUSIC BY JOHN FINCH

I'm learning how to let go
So You can take control
When my worries seem to find me

It's not a natural thing
To give You everything
But I know that You are for me

You can have it all
You can have it all
I am drawing closer, this is my surrender
You can have it all
You can have it all
Your love is taking over, this is my surrender, Lord

You're stirring so deep in my soul
I see Your grace unfold
It's only a matter of time

Now my heart belongs to You, Lord
You are my treasure, my reward
I fix my eyes on Jesus

I lay everything down at Your feet
I know You made a way for me
Hallelujah to the King, forever

I lay everything down at Your feet
All I am and all that I'll be
Hallelujah to the King, forever
